

I do not want the FCC to change the present law and enable established Business relationships to be able to call me with annoying calls. If I want to do business with someone, I will instigate the call myself.